CIGARETTES?

NO, NO. THEY'RE CALLED INVALERETTES

A cartoon illustration of a doctor and a patient. The doctor, on the left, is a man with a large nose, wearing a white lab coat and a stethoscope. He has a concerned expression. The patient, on the right, is a man with dark, curly hair, seen from the side. A pink speech bubble from the doctor says, "LOOKS TO ME LIKE YOU'VE GOT A SERIOUS CASE OF BAD LUNG". A blue speech bubble from the patient says, "IS THAT LIKE ... ASTHMA?".
